15 Tiffany Road, Imbil

DOWNSIZE WITHOUT LOSING YOUR SPACE!

Tiffany Rd is a little-known road off the end of Ray Myers Rd, just a couple of minutes from the village of Imbil. The house is set on a 6,245m² corner block where a combination of vegetation and location maintain the privacy.

The homestead style home is quite definitely the best 2-bedroom home that I have ever seen. Purpose designed and built for one couple or your small family, it's a large house with a small number of rooms! The roof area that includes the house, verandas and carport, totals 480m² (over 50 squares in the old language).

From the carport end, a wide hallway runs right through the centre of the house and delivers you to an open plan living area. Bamboo flooring, high ceilings, lots of natural light and wide spaces are all features. The large living space is complimented by 190m² of covered, decked verandas. The kitchen has electric cooking, plenty of bench space and timeless timber & mesh cupboard/pantry doors. Mini orb and colourful feature walls add to the decor, while a well-positioned slow combustion heater will keep the house warm in winter.

The main bedroom is directly off the lounge area, separated by double bi-fold doors. Privacy if you need it, open space if you don't! This bedroom is 6m X 6m with a walk-through robe. While there is only one bathroom, it is separated into 3 sections – a shower/bath room, a toilet complete with its own vanity and a large vanity/storage area. Bedroom two doubles as an office/study and the laundry is also a craft room.

Car accommodation is a long tandem carport under the roofline, an enclosed single garage with attached single carport, and a double garage that once was
