MODERN TAKE ON COUNTRY LIVING

The street view of this modern, double-storey home is dominated by the shape and angle of the front deck. It's a modern take on country living. A circular driveway delivers you to the home, set in the middle of a picturesque 3,189m2 (3/4 acre) block.

The covered front deck is an important part of the living space where sliding doors open up so there is a seamless line between the inside and the outside. The top level of the home is for everyday living. It includes a modern kitchen that not only comes with a great 5-burner gas stove, matching range and dishwasher, but a huge island bench with plenty of draw storage and a breakfast bar. This level is open plan living and air conditioned. The lower level is the party level, with an air conditioned rumpus room, complete with a built-in bar.

The two levels are joined by both internal and external stairs. With a total of 4 bedrooms and 2 family bathrooms, there are 2 bedrooms & 1 bathroom on each level.

Externally, the home is chamferboard clad upstairs and solid block on the lower level. Vehicle parking and storage are covered with an attached double carport and storage room. This is country living without the work.
