29 Kevin Road, Imbil

THE SOUND OF SILENCE!

The home at 29 Kevin Rd is low-set, with a solid brick exterior. It is set in established grounds on an almost-level, square block. The block, on a quiet cul-de-sac road, has well over 1 acre (4,467M2) of alluvial soil!

You enter the home from a large porch or front veranda, straight into the open-plan living room. This is a very large space where a low wall marks the separation between the lounge room and the hallway/walkway. The corner kitchen has electric cooking, good bench space & storage and is separated from the dining room by a small breakfast bar. The living area has both air-conditioning & slow combustion heating, good natural light and direct access to the rear entertaining area.

There are 3 bedrooms, the main with a walk-in robe, en-suite & external access. The second bedroom has a built-in robe and the third is currently used as the office/study. A generous sized main bathroom has a separate toilet. With internal access from the dining room, the attached single garage is also home to the laundry and an additional fridge for the kitchen.

However for relaxation & entertaining, the focal point of the property is the covered rear veranda. From here you overlook, not only a yard full of fruit trees for you and native trees & bushes for the bird & wildlife, but a wider view. You can enjoy colourful sunrises ... the fog rolling in ... passing storms & clear starry nights. Match these sights with a view of homes on Imbil Hill in the foreground, and some of the local mountains in the distance. You can cook lunch or dinner in the outside wood-fired oven!

Outbuildings & infra structure include a separate garage & workshop, good tank
