12 Edwards Road, Amamoor

A COTTAGE IN THE GARDEN!

You can't have a garden without water. The garden at 12 Edwards Rd is a great garden, with an abundance of water! A spring-fed creek, running through a dam & some ponds, creates a billabong effect that not only adds to the garden's setting, it is also the water source for irrigation. The home is a cute weatherboard-clad cottage, nestled in this fabulous setting.

Inside, the air-conditioned casual living area is semi-separated from a more formal lounge/dining room with slow combustion heating. The galley kitchen, with a gas cooktop and good bench space & storage, has a great outlook through to the garden. The main bedroom has a built-in robe & generous sized ensuite, and there is a small study/office.

The other two bedrooms have separate access, and there is a second ensuite off bedroom 2. However, it would be easy to convert bedrooms 2 & 3 into self-contained living accommodation, creating two 1-bedroom cottages, or join the two with internal access.

While the full-length rear deck, overlooking the grounds, is perfect for entertaining, there are a million shady/sunny spots, scattered through grounds that feature mature trees, established gardens, water features, little bridges and a small cabin beside the billabong.

The single carport at the cottages is complimented by outbuildings that provide for multiple vehicle parking spaces, workshop & storage, and a studio ... plus a chook-yard & chook-house. There is also the bonus of a solar power system, back to the grid.
