HOBBY FARM ... COUNTRY LIVING!

The 5-acre (2.06 ha) block at 245 Coonoongibber Creek Rd is one of our most picturesque. It's sited on a quiet no-through-road with easy forest access, and has green paddocks, established trees and Coonoon Gibber Creek frontage.

A central driveway leads to a home partially hidden in an established setting that includes a magnificent Fig tree. Externally, the home is freshly painted in contrasting colours – dark charcoal & white – striking!

Inside, upstairs, you enter a delightful lounge/reception room with high ceilings, polished timber floors, casement windows and slow combustion heating. The colour scheme in this room is a good match for the outside! The kitchen has gas cooking, timber benchtops, plenty of storage and direct access to the semi-enclosed outside dining area. There is one upstairs bathroom and two bedrooms. The main bedroom has a bay window, both bedrooms have access to a small study/sitting room and the separate toilet.

Downstairs is fully self-contained with a light & bright living room that has two access doors – one to the front and one to the north facing outside sitting area. The kitchen has electric cooking, there is one bedroom, plenty of storage, and a combined bathroom/laundry.

While there is a double carport attached to the home, there is a collection of outbuildings including a high access carport suited to a van, boat or motorhome. This land is suitable for horses or an orchard ... in fact it's suitable for all grazing & horticultural pursuits. With unlimited water from a productive well & the creek, you're all set.
