PICTURE PERFECT!

This property really is as pretty as a picture!

Some houses tell a whole story when you see them from the outside, and some keep you guessing about what you're going to find ... this home, with its front picket fence just makes you smile.

The separate front yard has been neatly landscaped and does have that picket fence for smaller family pets. The formal entrance has its own covered porch and leads you into the lounge room filled with sunshine. The lounge and dining rooms are open planned, there is an electric fireplace, and reverse cycle air conditioning.

There are beautiful polished timber floors and high cathedral ceilings right throughout the home.

The kitchen is the perfect place to prepare your next dinner party with a spectacular Belling 5 burner gas cooker, matching feature range hood, dishwasher, and a butler's pantry with additional sink. The kitchen is separated from the dining space by a huge island bench with timber top and amazing drawer storage.

There are three bedrooms – bedroom 2 has a built in and double windows, and bedroom 3 is perfect for your home office or study with external access to the front yard. The master however is the perfect space – generously proportioned there is a walk-in robe, huge ensuite with shower and separate bath, and bedroom that features a bank of skylights with a roofline that seems to climb high up into the sky.
